

“Some of the Aided college lecturers, who have been sponsored by SSB during 2016, did not join the respective colleges within the stipulated time. It has therefore been decided that such persons have lost their right to such employment. Alternative persons are being appointed against such vacancies from the list sponsored by SSB in respect of the same examination, in order of merit, against each category of vacancy”