- i) The Educational Agency should apply for opening permission, increase of seats, opening of new subjects/Honours in self-financing mode. The Prescribed Authorities should recommend the proposals in self-financing mode which will be subsequently considered by HPC in self-financing mode.
- ii) It has been unanimously decided that the increase of seats in +3 Science over and above 160 may create problem to conduct practical classes in the colleges. Henceforth the Prescribed Authority will make thorough scrutiny regarding feasibility for conduct of practical classes if they recommend to increase +3 Science seats beyond 160.
- iii) Permanent Recognition with retrospective effect will not be granted to any college as it is not permissible under rule.

- iv) Change of nomenclature of degree colleges which are under the status of composite college (277 Colleges) shall be taken up after receipt of the views of School & Mass Education Department regarding nomenclature of +2 Colleges.
- v) The college which is functioning under one Directorate if applies for opening of a new stream under other Directorate, then the institution has to submit NOC from both the Directorates.
- vi) In view of the Resolution No.114/15 dated 03.09.2015 of Bar Council of India, regarding opening of Law stream in an existing college other than Law College and also regarding opening of a new Law College, the Utkal University, Berhampur University, Sambalpur University, National Law University and Director, Higher Education may be requested to furnish their views on procedure to be followed to check the mushroom growth of Law Colleges which is a concern for Bar Council of India. After obtaining their opinion Government may finalise the procedure to be followed for opening of Law Streams/Law Colleges.
